

BIRLA GLOBAL UNIVERSITY CELEBRATES NATIONAL SCIENCE DAY

Bhubaneswar: Birla School of Applied Sciences, Birla Global University (BGU) celebrated National Science Day on February 28th, bringing together scientists, researchers, educators, students, and enthusiasts to commemorate the spirit of scientific inquiry and discovery. Prof L P Singh, former Professor of Physics, Utkal University, graced the occasion as Chief Guest and Prof Luna Samanta, Professor of Zoology and Chairperson, PG Council Ravenshaw University was the guest of honour on this occasion. Prof. L P Singh in his address focused on the usage of technology that has been there since ancient times by sighting the example of Konark temple and the technology behind it. Prof

Luna Samanta delivered an eye-opening speech explaining how science is changing the world. Prof P P Mathur, Vice-Chancellor, Birla Global University, encouraged the students to focus on the recent developments in the field of AI. He advised the students to treat science as a passion. Prof B K Das, Registrar of BGU, enlightens the students on science and its recent advancements. Dr Bandita Sahu, convener of the event delivered the welcome address and Dr Manaswini Jena, co-convener proposed a vote of thanks. The event was concluded with the felicitation of guests and the awarding of the Hackathon winner conducted by the School of Applied Sciences.

BGU CELEBRATED NATIONAL SCIENCE DAY

Birla School of Applied Sciences, Birla Global University celebrated National Science Day on 28th February, bringing together scientists, researchers, educators, students, and enthusiasts to commemorate the spirit of scientific inquiry and discovery. Prof. L. P. Singh, former professor of Physics, at Utkal University, graced the occasion as Chief Guest, and Prof. Luna Samanta, Professor of Zoology and Chairperson, PG Council Ravenshaw University, was the guest of honor. Prof. L P Singh in his address, focused on the usage of technology that has been there since ancient times by sighting the example of Konark temple and the technology behind it. Prof. Luna Samanta delivered an eye-opening speech explaining how science is changing the world. Prof. P.P. Mathur, Vice-Chancellor of Birla Global University, encouraged the students to focus on the recent developments in the field of AI. Prof. B. K. Das, Registrar of BGU, enlightens the students on science and its recent advancements. The event was concluded with the felicitation of guests and the awarding of the Hackathon winner conducted by the School of Applied Sciences.